

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

As you know, the media are a direct line of information for people. As such, there needs to be profound support for all manner of such communication to enable us all to function properly in our world. Variety with equal support for it all is essential.
